7.2 In the case of transfer of interests in Shares in the form of depository interests or similar interests a Shareholder shall be entitled to transfer his interests by means of a relevant system and the operator of the relevant system shall act as agent of the Shareholders for the purposes of the transfer of such interests.

7.3 The transferor of any Shares shall remain the holder of those Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register as the holder of those Shares.

- 7.4 The register of members may be closed at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine, not exceeding in aggregate thirty days in each year, upon notice being given by advertisement in a leading daily newspaper and in such other newspaper (if any) as may be required by the Act and the practice of the Stock Exchange.
- 7.5 The directors may in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason refuse to register any instrument of transfer:
- (a) unless it is in respect of a fully paid share;
 - (b) unless it is in respect of a share on which the Company does not have a lien;
 - (c) unless it is in respect of only one class of shares;
 - (d) if it is in favour of more than four joint holders as transferees;

provided always that the directors shall at all times when considering an instrument of transfer in respect of partly paid shares have regard to the requirements of the Stock Exchange so as to ensure that the Company does not prevent dealings in its shares on an open and proper basis. If the Board refuses to register a transfer of any shares it shall send to the transferee notice of the refusal within 2 months after the date on which, in respect of certificated shares, the transfer was lodged with the Company, or, in respect of uncertificated shares, the date on which the appropriate instruction was received by or on behalf of the Company, in each case in accordance with the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned.

- 7.6 The Company may retain an instrument of transfer which is registered but a transfer which the directors refuse to register shall (except in the case of known or suspected fraud) be returned to the person lodging it when notice of the refusal is given.
- 7.7 If the Board declines to register a transfer it shall, within two months or such other period (if any) as may be prescribed by the Act, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.
- 7.8 No fee shall be charged by the Company for registering any transfer, probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, distringas or stop notice, order of court or other instrument relating to or affecting the title of any Share, or otherwise making any entry in the Register relating to any Share.
- 7.9 The executor or administrator of a deceased Shareholder, the guardian of an incompetent Shareholder or the trustee of a bankrupt Shareholder shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to his Share but they shall not be entitled to exercise any rights as a Shareholder of the Company until they have proceeded as set forth in the next following three regulations.
- 7.10 The production to the Company of any document which is evidence of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, or confirmation as executor, of a deceased Shareholder or of the appointment of a guardian of an incompetent Shareholder or the trustee of a bankrupt Shareholder shall be accepted by the Company even if the deceased, incompetent or bankrupt Shareholder is domiciled outside the British Virgin Islands if the document evidencing the grant of probate or letters of administration, confirmation as executor, appointment as guardian or trustee in bankruptcy is issued by a foreign court which had competent jurisdiction in the matter. For the purpose of establishing whether or not a foreign court had competent jurisdiction in such a matter the directors may obtain appropriate legal advice. The directors may also require an indemnity to be given by the executor, administrator, guardian or trustee in bankruptcy.

- 7.11 Any person becoming entitled by operation of law or otherwise to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any Shareholder may be registered as a Shareholder upon such evidence being produced as may reasonably be required by the directors and in the case of uncertificated Shares subject also to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned. An application by any such person to be registered as a Shareholder shall for all purposes be deemed to be a transfer of Shares of the deceased, incompetent or bankrupt Shareholder and the directors shall treat it as such.
- 7.12 Any person who has become entitled to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any Shareholder may, instead of being registered himself, request in writing that some person to be named by him be registered as the transferee of such Share or Shares and such request shall likewise be treated as if it were a transfer.
- 7.13 What amounts to incompetence on the part of a person is a matter to be determined by the court having regard to all the relevant evidence and the circumstances of the case.

- 8.6 A General Meeting held in contravention of the requirement to give notice is valid if Shareholders holding at least 90% of the total voting rights on all the matters to be considered at the meeting have waived notice of the meeting and, for this purpose, the presence of a Shareholder at the meeting shall constitute waiver in relation to all the Shares which that Shareholder holds.
- 8.7 The inadvertent failure of a director who convenes a General Meeting to give notice of a meeting to a Shareholder or another director, or the fact that a Shareholder or another director has not received notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

- 8.13 A General Meeting is duly constituted if, at the commencement of the meeting, there are present in person or by proxy Shareholders holding not less than two of the votes of the Shares entitled to vote on Resolutions of Shareholders to be considered at the meeting. A quorum may comprise a single Shareholder or proxy and then such person may pass a Resolution of Shareholders and a certificate signed by such person accompanied where such person be a proxy by a copy of the proxy instrument shall constitute a valid Resolution of Shareholders.
- 8.14 If within two hours from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the next business day in the jurisdiction in which the meeting was to have been held at the same time and place or to such other time and place as the directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting there are not present within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting in person or by proxy not less than two of the votes of the Shares entitled to vote on the matters to be considered by the meeting, those present shall constitute a quorum but otherwise the meeting shall be dissolved.

- 8.15 At every General Meeting, the Chairman of the Board shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chairman of the Board or if the Chairman of the Board is not present at the meeting, the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be the chairman. If the Shareholders are unable to choose a chairman for any reason, then the person representing the greatest number of voting Shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting shall preside as chairman failing which the oldest individual Shareholder or representative of a Shareholder present shall take the chair.
- 8.16 The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 8.17 At any General Meeting the chairman is responsible for deciding in such manner as he considers appropriate whether any resolution proposed has been carried or not and the result of his decision shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting. If the chairman has any doubt as to the outcome of the vote on a proposed resolution, he shall cause a poll to be taken of all votes cast upon such resolution. If the chairman fails to take a poll then any Shareholder present in person or by proxy who disputes the announcement by the chairman of the result of any vote may immediately following such announcement demand that a poll be taken and the chairman shall cause a poll to be taken. If a poll is taken at any meeting, the result shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 8.18 Subject to the specific provisions contained in this Regulation for the appointment of representatives of Eligible Persons other than individuals the right of any individual to speak for or represent a Shareholder shall be determined by the law of the jurisdiction where, and by the documents by which, the Eligible Person is constituted or derives its existence. In case of doubt, the directors may in good faith seek legal advice from any qualified person and unless and until a court of competent jurisdiction shall otherwise rule, the directors may rely and act upon such advice without incurring any liability to any Shareholder or the Company.
- 8.19 Any Eligible Person other than an individual which is a Shareholder may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such individual as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any General Meeting or of any class of Shareholders, and the individual so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same rights on behalf of the Shareholder which he represents as that Shareholder could exercise if it were an individual.
- 8.20 The chairman of any meeting at which a vote is cast by proxy or on behalf of any Eligible Person other than an individual may call for a notarially certified copy of such proxy or authority which shall be produced within 7 days of being so requested or the votes cast by such proxy or on behalf of such Eligible Person shall be disregarded.
- 8.21 Directors of the Company may attend and speak at any General Meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class or series of Shares.
- 8.22 An action that may be taken by the Shareholders at a meeting may also be taken by a resolution consented to in writing, without the need for any notice, but if any Resolution of Shareholders is adopted otherwise than by the unanimous written consent of all Shareholders, a copy of such resolution shall forthwith be sent to all Shareholders not consenting to such resolution. The consent may be in the form of counterparts, each counterpart being signed by one or more Shareholders. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the earliest date upon which Shareholders holding a sufficient number of votes of Shares to constitute a Resolution of Shareholders have consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.

9. DIRECTORS

- 9.1 The first directors of the Company shall be appointed by the first registered agent within 6 months of the date of incorporation of the Company; and thereafter, the directors shall be elected by Resolution of Shareholders or by Resolution of Directors.
- 9.2 No person shall be appointed as a director of the Company unless he has consented in writing to be a director.
- 9.3 Subject to Sub-Regulation 9.1, the minimum number of directors shall be one (1) and the maximum number of directors shall be fifteen (15).
- 9.4 Each director holds office for the term, if any, fixed by the Resolution of Shareholders or the Resolution of Directors appointing him, or until his earlier death, resignation or removal. If no term is fixed on the appointment of a director, the director serves indefinitely until his earlier death, resignation or removal.
- 9.5 A director may be removed from office,
- (a) with or without cause, by Resolution of Shareholders passed at a General Meeting called for the purposes of removing the director or for purposes including the removal of the director; or
 - (b) with cause, by Resolution of Directors passed at a meeting of directors called for the purpose of removing the director or for purposes including the removal of the director.
- 9.6 The following provisions in relation to the retirement of directors by rotation shall apply:
- (a) at each Annual General Meeting one third of the directors for the time being (or, if their number is not a multiple of three (3), the number nearest to but not more than one-third) shall retire from office by rotation;
 - (b) the directors to retire in every year shall be those subject to retirement by rotation who have been longest in office since their last re-election or appointment. As between persons who become or were last re-elected directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot. A retiring director shall be eligible for re-election;
 - (c) the Company at the Annual General Meeting at which a director retires under any provision of these Articles may by Resolution of Shareholders fill the office being vacated by electing thereto the retiring director or some other person eligible for appointment. In default, the retiring director shall be deemed to have been re-elected except in any of the following cases: (i) where at such Annual General Meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such office or a resolution for the re-election of such director is put to the meeting and lost; (ii) where such director is disqualified under the Act from holding office as a director or has given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected; or (iii) where such director has attained any retiring age applicable to him as a director; and

- (d) the retirement shall not have effect until the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting except where (i) a resolution is put to the Annual General Meeting to elect some other person in the place of the retiring director and lost; or (ii) a resolution for his re-election is put to the Annual General Meeting and passed in which case, the retiring director (who has been re-elected or is deemed to have been re-elected) shall continue in office without a break.
- 9.7 A director may resign his office by giving written notice of his resignation to the Company and the resignation has effect from the date the notice is received by the Company or from such later date as may be specified in the notice. A director shall resign forthwith as a director if he is, or becomes, disqualified from acting as a director under the Act.
- 9.8 The directors may at any time appoint any person to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing directors. Where the directors appoint a person as director to fill a vacancy, the director so appointed shall retire from office at the next Annual General Meeting following such appointment and will then be eligible for re-election during such meeting and he shall not retire by rotation at such meeting or be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of directors at such meeting.
- 9.9 A vacancy in relation to directors occurs if a director dies or otherwise ceases to hold office prior to the expiration of his term of office.
- 9.10 The Company shall keep a register of directors containing:
- (a) the names and addresses of the persons who are directors of the Company;
 - (b) the date on which each person whose name is entered in the register was appointed as a director of the Company;
 - (c) the date on which each person named as a director ceased to be a director of the Company; and
 - (d) such other information as may be prescribed by the Act.
- 9.11 The register of directors may be kept in any such form as the directors may approve, but if it is in magnetic, electronic or other data storage form, the Company must be able to produce legible evidence of its contents. Until a Resolution of Directors determining otherwise is passed, the magnetic, electronic or other data storage shall be the original register of directors.
- 9.12 The directors may, by Resolution of Directors, fix the emoluments of directors with respect to services to be rendered in any capacity to the Company.
- 9.13 A director is not required to hold a Share as a qualification to office.

10. POWERS OF DIRECTORS

- 10.1 The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by, or under the direction or supervision of, the directors of the Company. The directors of the Company have all the powers necessary for managing, and for directing and supervising, the business and affairs of the Company. The directors may pay all expenses incurred preliminary to and in connection with the incorporation of the Company and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act or by the Memorandum or the Articles required to be exercised by the Shareholders.
- 10.2 Each director shall exercise his powers for a proper purpose and shall not act or agree to the Company acting in a manner that contravenes the Memorandum, the Articles or the Act. Each director, in exercising his powers or performing his duties, shall act honestly and in good faith in what the director believes to be the best interests of the Company.
- 10.3 Any director which is a body corporate may appoint any individual as its duly authorised representative for the purpose of representing it at meetings of the directors, with respect to the signing of consents or otherwise.
- 10.4 The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body.
- 10.5 The directors may by Resolution of Directors exercise all the powers of the Company to incur indebtedness, liabilities or obligations and to secure indebtedness, liabilities or obligations whether of the Company or of any third party.
- 10.6 All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by Resolution of Directors.
- 10.7 The provisions of Section 175 (Disposition of assets) of the Act shall not apply to the Company.

11. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

- 11.1 Any one director of the Company may call a meeting of the directors by sending a written notice to each other director.
- 11.2 The directors of the Company or any committee thereof may meet at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the directors may determine to be necessary or desirable.
- 11.3 A director is deemed to be present at a meeting of directors if he participates by telephone or other electronic means and all directors participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.
- 11.4 A director shall be given not less than 3 days' notice of meetings of directors, but a meeting of directors held without 3 days' notice having been given to all directors shall be valid if all the directors entitled to vote at the meeting who do not attend waive notice of the meeting, and for this purpose the presence of a director at a meeting shall constitute waiver by that director. The inadvertent failure to give notice of a meeting to a director, or the fact that a director has not received the notice, does not invalidate the meeting.
- 11.5 A director may by a written instrument appoint an alternate who need not be a director and the alternate shall be entitled to attend meetings in the absence of the director who appointed him and to vote in place of the director until the appointment lapses or is terminated.

- 11.6 A meeting of directors is duly constituted for all purposes if at the commencement of the meeting there are present in person or by alternate not less than one-half of the total number of directors, unless there are only 2 directors in which case the quorum is 2.
- 11.7 If the Company has only one director the provisions herein contained for meetings of directors do not apply and such sole director has full power to represent and act for the Company in all matters as are not by the Act, the Memorandum or the Articles required to be exercised by the Shareholders. In lieu of minutes of a meeting the sole director shall record in writing and sign a note or memorandum of all matters requiring a Resolution of Directors. Such a note or memorandum constitutes sufficient evidence of such resolution for all purposes.
- 11.8 At meetings of directors at which the Chairman of the Board is present, he shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chairman of the Board or if the Chairman of the Board is not present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- 11.9 An action that may be taken by the directors or a committee of directors at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Directors or a resolution of a committee of directors consented to in writing by all directors or by all members of the committee, as the case may be, without the need for any notice. The consent may be in the form of counterparts each counterpart being signed by one or more directors. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the date upon which the last director has consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.

12. COMMITTEES

- 12.1 The directors may, by Resolution of Directors, designate one or more committees, each consisting of one or more directors, and delegate one or more of their powers, including the power to affix the Seal, to the committee.

the Company's assets will exceed its liabilities and the Company will be able to pay its debts as they fall due.

- 12.3 Sub-Regulation 12.2(b) and (c) do not prevent a committee of directors, where authorised by the Resolution of Directors appointing such committee or by a subsequent Resolution of Directors, from appointing a sub-committee and delegating powers exercisable by the committee to the sub-committee.
- 12.4 The meetings and proceedings of each committee of directors consisting of 2 or more directors shall be governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of the Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as the same are not superseded by any provisions in the Resolution of Directors establishing the committee.
- 12.5 Where the directors delegate their powers to a committee of directors they remain responsible for the exercise of that power by the committee, unless they believed on reasonable grounds at all times before the exercise of the power that the committee would exercise the power in conformity with the duties imposed on directors of the Company under the Act.

13. OFFICERS AND AGENTS

- 13.1 The Company may by Resolution of Directors appoint officers of the Company at such times as may be considered necessary or expedient. Such officers may consist of a Chairman of the Board of Directors, a president and one or more vice-presidents, secretaries and treasurers and such other officers as may from time to time be considered necessary or expedient. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.
- 13.2 The officers shall perform such duties as are prescribed at the time of their appointment subject to any modification in such duties as may be prescribed thereafter by Resolution of Directors. In the absence of any specific prescription of duties it shall be the responsibility of the Chairman of the Board to preside at meetings of directors and Shareholders, the president to manage the day to day affairs of the Company, the vice-presidents to act in order of seniority in the absence of the president but otherwise to perform such duties as may be delegated to them by the president, the secretaries to maintain the register of members, minute books and records (other than financial records) of the Company and to ensure compliance with all procedural requirements imposed on the Company by applicable law, and the treasurer to be responsible for the financial affairs of the Company.
- 13.3 The emoluments of all officers shall be fixed by Resolution of Directors.
- 13.4 The officers of the Company shall hold office until their successors are duly appointed, but any officer elected or appointed by the directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by Resolution of Directors. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by Resolution of Directors.
- 13.5 The directors may, by Resolution of Directors, appoint any person, including a person who is a director, to be an agent of the Company.
- 13.6 An agent of the Company shall have such powers and authority of the directors, including the power and authority to affix the Seal, as are set forth in the Articles or in the Resolution of Directors appointing the agent, except that no agent has any power or authority with respect to the following:

- (b) to change the registered office or agent;
- (c) to designate committees of directors;
- (d) to delegate powers to a committee of directors;
- (e) to appoint or remove directors;
- (f) to appoint or remove an agent;
- (g) to fix emoluments of directors;
- (h) to approve a plan of merger, consolidation or arrangement;
- (i) to make a declaration of solvency or to approve a liquidation plan;
- (j) to make a determination that immediately after a proposed Distribution the value of the Company's assets will exceed its liabilities and the Company will be able to pay its debts as they fall due; or
- (k) to authorise the Company to continue as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the British Virgin Islands.

13.7 The Resolution of Directors appointing an agent may authorise the agent to appoint one or more substitutes or delegates to exercise some or all of the powers conferred on the agent by the Company.

13.8 The directors may remove an agent appointed by the Company and may revoke or vary a power conferred on him.

14. CONFLICT OF INTERESTS

14.1 A director of the Company shall, forthwith after becoming aware of the fact that he is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company, disclose the interest to all other directors of the Company.

14.2 For the purposes of Sub-Regulation 14.1, a disclosure to all other directors to the effect that a director is a member, director or officer of another named entity or has a fiduciary relationship with respect to the entity or a named individual and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction which may, after the date of the entry into the transaction or disclosure of the interest, be entered into with that entity or individual, is a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to that transaction.

14.3 A director of the Company who is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company may:

- (a) vote on a matter relating to the transaction;
- (b) attend a meeting of directors at which a matter relating to the transaction arises and be included among the directors present at the meeting for the purposes of a quorum; and

and, subject to compliance with the Act shall not, by reason of his office be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from such transaction and no such transaction shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.

15. INDEMNIFICATION

15.1 Subject to the limitations hereinafter provided the Company shall indemnify against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred in connection with legal, administrative or investigative proceedings any person who:

- (b) is or was, at the request of the Company, serving as a director of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another body corporate or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

15.2 The indemnity in Sub-Regulation 15.1 only applies if the person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company and, in the case of criminal proceedings, the person had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.

15.3 For the purposes of Sub-Regulation 15.2, a director acts in the best interests of the Company if he acts in the best interests of

- (a) the Company's holding company; or
- (b) a Shareholder or Shareholders of the Company;

in either case, in the circumstances specified in Sub-Regulation Error! Reference source not found. or the Act, as the case may be.

15.4 The decision of the directors as to whether the person acted honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company and as to whether the person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful is, in the absence of fraud, sufficient for the purposes of the Articles, unless a question of law is involved.

15.5 The termination of any proceedings by any judgment, order, settlement, conviction or the entering of a nolle prosequi does not, by itself, create a presumption that the person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

15.6 Expenses, including legal fees, incurred by a director in defending any legal, administrative or investigative proceedings may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director to repay the amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the director is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company in accordance with Sub-Regulation 15.1.

15.7 Expenses, including legal fees, incurred by a former director in defending any legal, administrative or investigative proceedings may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the former director to repay the amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the former director is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company in accordance with Sub-Regulation 15.1 and upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Company deems appropriate.

- 15.8 The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section is not exclusive of any other rights to which the person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, Resolution of Shareholders, resolution of disinterested directors or otherwise, both as acting in the person's official capacity and as to acting in another capacity while serving as a director of the Company.
- 15.9 If a person referred to in Sub-Regulation 15.1 has been successful in defence of any proceedings referred to in Sub-Regulation 15.1, the person is entitled to be indemnified against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the proceedings.
- 15.10 The Company may purchase and maintain insurance in relation to any person who is or was a director, officer or liquidator of the Company, or who at the request of the Company is or was serving as a director, officer or liquidator of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another body corporate or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in that capacity, whether or not the Company has or would have had the power to indemnify the person against the liability as provided in the Articles.

24.1 For the purposes of this Regulation 24:

 - (ii) that person, not being the Shareholder, is interested in those Shares in any manner or the Company otherwise has reasonable cause to believe that it is.

24.2 A person must not (other than solely as Depository):

 - (g) in respect of some or all of any Excess Shares remove from the holder(s) thereof the right to vote at any General Meeting and/or any right to any dividends or other distributions (whether of income or of capital) from a particular time for a definite period (or, in the event that the circumstances would, if the City Code applied to the Company, require an offer to be made under Rule 9 of the City Code, then from a particular time until such an offer is made in accordance with Rule 9 of the City Code as if so applied, or (if earlier) until such Excess Shares are sold to a person who is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Board not to be acting in concert with the holder pursuant to an arm's length transfer (as defined below); and

Such authority shall include all discretion vested in the Panel as if the whole or any part of the City Code applied including, without limitation, the determination of conditions and consents, the consideration to be offered and any restrictions on the exercise of control. Any resolution or determination of, or decision or exercise of any discretion of power by, the Board Shareholder or any Director acting in good faith under or pursuant to the provisions of this Regulation 24 shall be final and conclusive; and anything done by, or on behalf of, or on the authority of, the Board Shareholder or any Director acting in good faith pursuant to the provisions of this Regulation 24 shall not be open to challenge, whether as to its validity or otherwise on any ground whatsoever. The Board shall not be required to give the reasons for any decision, determination or declaration taken or made in accordance with this Regulation 24.

24.6 Any one or more of the directors may act as the attorney(s) of a Member in relation to the execution of documents and other actions to be taken for the sale of Excess Shares determined by the Board under this Regulation 24.

25. DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS IN SHARES AND COMPANY INVESTIGATIONS

25.1 For the purposes of this Regulation 25:

- (a) a person will be treated as having an “interest” in Shares if:
- (i) he owns them;
 - (ii) he has the right (whether conditional or absolute) to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting rights attaching to them or has general control of them;
 - (iii) by virtue of any agreement to purchase, option or derivative he has the right or option to acquire them or call for their delivery; or he is under an obligation to take delivery of them, whether the right, option or obligation is conditional or absolute;
 - (iv) he is party to any derivative whose value is determined by reference to their price and which results, or may result, in his having a long position in them; or
 - (v) he has received an irrevocable commitment in respect of them;
- (b) a person’s interest shall be “notifiable” if the aggregate number of the Shares in which he has such interest is equal to or exceeds three per cent. of the Company’s issued shares; and

- (c) “Relevant Shares” means, in relation to a Shareholder, those Shares in which the Shareholder has a notifiable interest.

25.2 The provisions of this Regulation 25 are in addition to and separate from any other rights or obligations arising at law or otherwise.

NOTIFICATION OF INTERESTS IN SHARES

25.3 Where a Shareholder or any person appearing to be interested in the Shares registered in the name of any Shareholder:

- (a) acquires or disposes of his interest in Relevant Shares; or
- (b) knows that any other person has acquired or disposed of an interest in Relevant Shares; or
- (c) becomes aware of any other change in circumstances affecting his or any other person’s interest in any Relevant Shares, then, if the circumstances set out in Regulation 25.4 apply, the Shareholder shall, in accordance with the requirements of the AIM Rules and the DG&T Rules and become obliged to notify the Company of his interests (if any) in the Relevant Shares, and to the extent he is aware of such further information and is not prevented by applicable law from disclosing the same, to notify the Company of the interests of any other person in the Relevant Shares. If in any case the Shareholder is prevented by applicable law from disclosing information in relation to any other person pursuant to this Regulation, the Shareholder shall use his reasonable endeavours to procure that such other person himself notifies his interests in the Relevant Shares to the Company.

25.4 The circumstances in which the Shareholder is obliged to notify the Company of matters relating to interests in Relevant Shares pursuant to Regulation 25.3 are where:

- (a) the Shareholder or any other person has a notifiable interest in Relevant Shares immediately after the relevant acquisition or disposal, but did not have such an interest immediately before that time.
- (b) the Shareholder or any other person has a notifiable interest in Relevant Shares immediately before the relevant acquisition or disposal, but does not have such an interest immediately after it; or
- (c) the Shareholder or any other person has a notifiable interest in Relevant Shares immediately before the relevant acquisition or disposal, and has such an interest immediately after it, but the percentage levels of his interest immediately after it are not the same.

25.5 For the purposes of Regulation 25.4, “percentage level” means the percentage figure found by expressing the aggregate number of all the shares comprised in the Company’s issued shares in which the person has an interest immediately before or (as the case may be) immediately after the relevant acquisition or disposal (or the time when the Shareholder became aware of any other circumstance affecting interests in Shares) as a percentage of the Company’s issued shares, and rounding that figure down, if it is not a whole number, to the next whole number.

- 25.6 Any notification required to be made under Regulation 25.3 must be made in writing to the Company within the period of four days from the day on which that obligation arises, and, to the extent that a Shareholder is not lawfully able to make such notification, such Shareholder shall use his reasonable endeavours to procure that the relevant person notifies his interest to the Company within such four day period. The period for the submission of any notification to the Company may be extended by the directors at their discretion.
- 25.7 The notification shall state the number of Shares (if any) in which the person making the notification knows he (or any other relevant person) was interested at the time when the obligation arose, and (except where the notification states that a person no longer has a notifiable interest) such notification shall include the following particulars, so far as known to the person making the notification at the date when it is made:
- (a) the identity of each registered holder of shares to which the notification relates and the number of such shares held by each of them, and, if the registered holder is not entitled to exercise the voting rights attaching to the Shares, the identity of the person who is entitled to exercise the voting rights on his behalf;
 - (b) the nature of the interests in the Relevant Shares and the chain of controlled undertakings (if applicable) through which the voting rights are effectively held;
 - (c) the date on which the relevant percentage level has been reached or crossed;
 - (d) in the case of a person making the notification in relation to Shares in which he is the registered owner, the change since the last notification he made regarding his shareholding; and
 - (e) the resulting situation in voting rights.
- 25.8 Where a person authorises another (the “agent”) to acquire or dispose of, on his behalf, interests in Shares, he shall procure that the agent notifies him immediately of acquisitions or disposals effected by the agent which will or may give rise to any obligation of disclosure imposed by this Regulation with respect to his interest in the Shares.
- 25.9 If it shall come to the notice of the directors that any Shareholder or any person appearing to be interested in the Shares registered in the name of any Shareholder has not within the requisite period made, or as the case may be, procured the making of any notification required by this Regulation, the Company may (at the absolute discretion of the directors) at any time thereafter by notice to any Shareholder (a “Restriction Notice”) direct that in respect of the Shares in relation to which the default has occurred (the “Default Shares”, which expression shall include any further Shares which are acquired by the defaulting Shareholder) such Shares will not confer upon the Shareholder the right to vote on a Resolution of Shareholders and/or will not carry any right to any dividends or other distributions and the Shareholder or any person appearing to be interested in the Shares registered in the name of any Shareholder agrees not to exercise their right to vote a Resolution of Shareholders or to receive dividends or distributions in relation to the Default Shares.
- 25.10 The Company shall send a copy of the Restriction Notice to each other person appearing to be interested in the Shares the subject of such notice but the failure or omission by the Company to do so shall not invalidate such notice. The Company may at the absolute discretion of the directors at any time give notice to the Shareholder cancelling or suspending for a stated period the operation of a Restriction Notice in whole or in part.

- 25.11 Any Restriction Notice shall have effect from the date of its issue until one of the following has occurred (“relevant event”):
- (a) the default is remedied to the satisfaction of the Company, and the Board notifies the relevant Shareholder of its satisfaction; or
 - (b) the shares are registered in the name of a transferee, or that of his nominee, pursuant to an arm’s length transfer.
- 25.12 A person, other than the Shareholder holding a Share, shall be treated as appearing to be interested in that Share if the Shareholder has informed the Company that the person is or may be interested, or if the Company (after taking account of information obtained from the Shareholder, or pursuant to a notice from anyone else) knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person is or may be so interested.
- 25.13 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Company may, at the absolute discretion of the directors, at any time give notice to any Depository disapplying, for any period of time and in whole or in part, the provisions of Regulations 25.1 to 25.12 in relation to that Depository.

COMPANY INVESTIGATIONS

- 25.14 The Company may by notice in writing (a “Disclosure Notice”) require a person whom the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be or, at any time during the 3 years immediately preceding the date on which the Disclosure Notice is issued, to have been interested in the Company’s Shares:
- (a) to confirm whether or not this is the case; and
 - (b) where he holds or has during that time held an interest in the Company’s Shares, to give such further information as may be required in accordance with the following Regulation 25.15.
- 25.15 A Disclosure Notice may require the person to whom it is addressed:
- (a) to give the particulars of the identity of persons interested in the Shares in question and the nature of their interests;
 - (b) to give particulars of his own past or present interest in Shares (held by him at any time during the 3-year period immediately preceding the date on which the notice is issued); and
 - (c) where his interest is a past interest, to give (so far as lies within his knowledge) particulars of the identity of the person who held that interest immediately upon his ceasing to hold it.
- 25.16 A Disclosure Notice shall require any information given in response to it to be given in writing within such reasonable time as may be specified in the Disclosure Notice but not later than fourteen days from the issue of the Disclosure Notice.
- 25.17 Regulations 25.14 to 25.16 apply in relation to a person who has or previously had, or is or was entitled to acquire, a right to subscribe for Shares as it applies in relation to a person who is or was interested in Shares already issued; and references in Regulations 25.14 to 25.16 above to an interest in Shares are to be read accordingly in any such case as including respectively any such right and Shares.

- 25.18 If a Disclosure Notice is given to a person appearing to be interested in any Shares, a copy will at the same time be given to the holder of those Shares, but the accidental omission to do so or the non-receipt by the Shareholder will not prejudice the operation of Regulations 25.16 to 25.20, which are without prejudice to the provisions of Regulation 25.23.
- 25.19 Subject to the provisions of Regulation 25.20, where a Disclosure Notice is served by the Company on a person appearing to the directors to be, or to have been, interested in the Shares of the Company and that person fails to give the Company any information required by the Disclosure Notice within the specified time, the Company may (at the discretion of the directors) apply to Court for an order directing that the Shares in question be subject to such restrictions as the Court believes appropriate in the circumstances and/ or deliver a notice on the Shareholder holding the Shares in relation to which the default has occurred (a “Default Notice”). The Default Notice shall apply to the Shares in relation to which the default has occurred and any further Shares which are acquired by the defaulting person (together, the “Default Shares”).
- 25.20 With effect from delivery of a Default Notice, unless the directors otherwise determine, a Shareholder agrees not to exercise the rights attaching to any Shares held by him, whether or not referred to in the Disclosure Notice:
- (a) to attend and vote at any meeting whether personally or by proxy;
 - (b) to receive any dividend or other amount payable in respect of the Shares; or
 - (c) subject to Regulation 25.22, to transfer or agree to transfer any of the Shares, or any rights in them-and the restrictions imposed by these Regulations in relation to any Shares will continue until a relevant event occurs in relation to those Shares.

- 25.21 Any dividends or other amounts withheld pursuant to Regulation 25.20(b) will be held in an account for and on behalf of the Shareholder and will be paid (without interest) to the Shareholder as soon as practicable after the restrictions contained in Regulation 25.20 cease to have effect.
- 25.22 The restrictions in Regulation 25.20 are without prejudice to the right of either the registered or the beneficial owner of the Shares concerned, to sell or agree to sell them pursuant to an arm’s length transfer.
- 25.23 Where a Disclosure Notice is served on a Depository, and the Depository fails, through no fault of its own, for any reason to comply with the Disclosure Notice:
- (a) the provisions of Regulations 25.18 to 25.22 will only be implemented by the Company in relation to those Shares in respect of which there has been a failure, and will not be implemented in relation to any other Shares held by the Depository; and
 - (b) the Company will not prevent the Shares held by the Depository in respect of which there has been a failure from being transferred by the Depository to a person shown to the satisfaction of the Board to be the beneficial holder or holders of such Shares.

- 25.24 The Company may at the absolute discretion of the directors, at any time give notice to the Shareholder cancelling, or suspending for a stated period the operation of a Default Notice in whole or in part.
